BURNSIDE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

You are invited to our meeting on Monday 17th July 2023 at 7.30pm

Speaker: Alison Hicks

Topic: Telling tales about school: a look at early schooling in South Australia, highlighting a number of eastern suburbs schools, teachers, buildings, and records.

From earliest colonial days education was important to those settling in South Australia. Alison's talk will explore the first school records available with the information they provide, and the development of government schooling. Included will be the fascinating personal stories that arise through further research. While the talk will highlight eastern suburb schools, it will also take a look at the interesting features of old schools Alison has found through her travels across the state.

Venue: the Burnside Community Centre Hall, (adjacent to Burnside Library)
401 Greenhill Road, Tusmore. Enter car park from Fisher Street off Portrush Road.
Non- members - a Gold Coin donation is appreciated.

Burnside Historical Society is a voluntary Society that focusses on the many historical aspects of the City of Burnside. We have monthly meetings which feature interesting presentations covering the history of the City of Burnside and South Australia.
